

PHN Privacy Statement

Darling Downs and West Moreton PHN is committed to ensuring that your personal and health information is handled in accordance with Australian privacy laws. The PHN respects your privacy and is bound by the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988.

We understand that you may have concerns about your privacy and confidentiality while online. We take care to ensure that the personal information you give us is protected. We do not presently disclose your personal information overseas. We will let you know if we are likely to disclose it overseas, and the relevant country.

Collection of your personal and health data

Darling Downs and West Moreton PHN collects only the personal or health information necessary to allow the organisation to provide products and services and maintain relationships with clients whose information they hold. The PHN's primary function is to assess and understand the health needs of the local region, and to engage service providers to provide health services within the local region.

As a result, the PHN may be required by its funding bodies to collect personal data pertaining to the delivery of contracted programs for reporting purposes. This de-identified data relates solely to age, ethnicity, social situation and diagnosis subject to treatment.

Security of information collected

Darling Downs and West Moreton PHN shall take all legally required and commercially reasonable measures, proportional to the associated risk, to protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access or disclosure, alteration and destruction. Pursuant to its records retention policies and procedures, the PHN shall not keep personal data for longer than necessary or permitted by law.

Information will be held in a variety of ways, including in paper and electronic format, on secure databases that are only accessible by relevant employees. The PHN may also hold photographic images taken of you on a secure database.

The PHN will not make available to a third party any personal information supplied by you unless required or permitted by law. This may also occur where you have consented to the disclosure.
