

Expression of Interest Toowoomba Refugee Health Clinical Advisory Group

BACKGROUND:

The Toowoomba Refugee Health Clinical Advisory Group (RH CAG) has been established to facilitate a coordinated response to the refugee health needs within the Toowoomba region. It is well established that refugee communities are vulnerable when it comes to health care and effective delivery of health care requires a regional and coordinated approach. The Toowoomba RH CAG will enable health care professionals within the Toowoomba region to better assess and address the health needs of people from a refugee health background and facilitate the delivery of quality health care.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY:

We are seeking health care professionals such as general practitioners, refugee health nurses, practice nurses, pharmacists and allied health professionals, who are willing to work collaboratively to develop a coordinated response to improve the delivery of refugee health care in the Toowoomba region.

If accepted into the Toowoomba RH CAG, you will have the opportunity to discuss clinical protocols, develop clinical resources and identify training needs.

YOUR COMMITMENT:

As a member of the Toowoomba RH CAG, you would be expected to provide timely information to support the purpose of the group and to attend regular meetings. A meeting schedule is yet to be determined for 2020/2021 however meetings are usually held every six weeks on a week-night evening for two hours. Dinner is provided.
